

Public Solicitation/Advertising in Schools

The public school system shall cooperate with community organizations in helping them forward activities which serve to enrich the experiences of students. Such cooperation may take the forms as outlined below.

1. School related organization

With the approval of the superintendent, these organizations may use school bulletin boards and PA systems and have the privilege of sending notices home with students regarding their activities. (Examples of organizations: PTO, Parks and Recreation Department.)

2. Youth oriented non-profit organizations

With the superintendent's approval, or superintendent's designee, these organizations may use school bulletin boards to disseminate information on applying for membership, activities, schedules and events. Students will not be given notices for carrying home. No solicitations of money or sale of tickets will be permitted by these groups in the schools. Staff members will not be asked to distribute or collect application blanks or other forms. (Examples of organizations: Scouts, Little League, church-sponsored youth groups when the activity is open to all and non-religious.)

3. For profit organizations

Business solicitations and advertisements will not be disseminated to students on the school campus. Community information bulletin boards may be used to post information, with approval from the building principal.

Adopted December 16, 1993

Revised to conform with practice: April 25, 2005